Mystic Shriners Preparing for the Imperial Council Sessions.

PROMISES TO BE A GREAT EVENT

Representative Washingtonians in Charge of Arrangements.

FULL LIST OF BODIES

The Mystic Shriners of Almas Temple are determined to make the annual sessions of the Imperial Council of the order, which will be held in this city May 22 and 23 next, the most memorable eccasion in the history of the Shriners. Indications are already promising enough to assure the largest attendance of robles on record, and it is believed the event will equal in every way the great triennial conclave of the Knights Templar which was held here in 1889. On that occasion the number of strengers visiting the city, including the sir knights and their ladies, was estimated to be in the neighborhood of 100,000, and as it was a throng composed almost entirely of individuals who were well-to-do and liberal in their expenditures, the substantial benefit to the city was very great.

stantial benefit to the city was very great. The Shriners are the same sort of people, as it is requisite for a Mason to be either a Knight Templar or a thirty-second degree Scottish Rite Mason to become a member of the Ancient Arabic Order, Nobles of the Mystic Shrine. In Washington the order embraces scores of the leading business men and others prominent in the professions, and all are animated by the single purpose of giving their visiting brethren the best time they ever had in their lives.

The Preservation of Garfield Park. To the Editor of The Evening Star:

While it is true, as stated by your reington Citizens' Association at its meeting last evening deferred action on the resolutions relating to Garfield Park reported by its committee on public parks and spaces, it may be of interest to add that so far as could be judged from the discussion, one of those resolutions appeared to meet with unanimous indersement. This was the resolution opposing the occupation by the railroad company of any part of the surface of that part of Garfield Park lying east of 1st that part of Garfield Park lying east of 1st street and New Jersey avenue. Under the plan proposed in the pending bill the railroad would emerge from the tunnel at 2d street southeast and run through a cut across the southwestern corner of that part of the park lying between 2d and 1st streets, crossing the latter and New Jersey avenue under a bridge. The contention of the committee was that, if the proposed route of the railroad cannot be swerved seuthward, so as to avoid Garfield Park altogether, then the tunnel should be continued to 1st street instead of terminating at 2d. And as the roadbed at this point tinued to 1st street instead of terminating at 2d. And as the roadbed at this point would be rising toward the surface, so as to pass from the tunnel to the viaduct after crossing 1st street and New Jersey avenue, it was suggested in the resolution referred to that to provide for this necessary rise and yet preserve the surface of the park intact as far as 1st street, the tunnel, in approaching that street, should be mounded over—a plan which conceivably might be so carried out as even to add to the picturesqueness of the park, while at the same time interposing a sort of screen between its northern portion and the railroad freight yards, shops, etc., to the south.

Even Mr. Weller, who vigorously opposed any action that might possibly endanger the general scheme for the abolition of the freight yards, shops, etc., to the south.

Even Mr. Weller, who vigorously opposed any action that might possibly endanger the general scheme for the abolition of the grade crossings, or in any wise delay its consummation, expressed his hearty concurrence in the particular resolution here in question. In short, the continuation of the tunnel as far as 1st street, so as to leave the park surface intact to that point, while proposed by the committee only as a minimum concession, and apparently viewed as such by most of those who spoke, seemed acceptable to those who spoke, seemed acceptable to those who are unwilling to ask for any larger modification of the plan submitted to Congress.

In view of the fact that without at least such a modification as the one suggested that plan would bring the railroad to the surface within less than three squares of the southern side of Providence Hospital and carry it across a park which is said to be largely used by convalescent patients of that institution—to say nothing of the consideration due to residents on the streets around the park—it would seem that the small concession above indicated should meet with no serious opposition in any quarter.
